

Press Brake Setup and Operator

- Ability to communicate effectively and efficiently in English (written and oral)
- Properly use and read measurement equipment and gauges
- Physical ability: pushing, pulling, stand for long periods of time, manual dexterity
- Ability to read, analyze, and interpret technical information on blueprints, and job travelers
- Pallet jack operation capability to transfer material
- Previous experience desired as a press brake operator preferably in precision sheet metal industry
- Mechanical aptitude required
- Must work well independently and in a team environment, and be results-orientated and be able to adapt quickly to change and work under tight deadlines
- Must be cooperative, willing to share knowledge, cross-train, take on additional responsibilities, and hold self-accountable

Essential Duties and Responsibilities (Other duties may be assigned)

- Identify and pull programs from network to load and run in machine
- Selects proper tooling based on material being formed
- Sets up and operates press brake to bend metal to blueprint/drawing specifications for runs of all sizes for all types of parts
- May clean and lubricate the machine
- Verifies conformance of parts to specifications
- Troubleshoots non-conformances in dimensions and makes appropriate adjustments
- Communicates with operators and inspection.
- Determines safety measures for each job

Please send a resume to jimb@westportprecision.com or come into 280 Hathaway Drive to fill out an application 7am-4pm.